

Dear Contestant,

Congratulations on qualifying for the 93rd South Carolina Amateur. It's been a quarter of a century since we last hosted the South Carolina Amateur and 95 years since we hosted our first. We look forward to adding another distinguished player to the list of champions that have been crowned here. That player will be joining the likes of Lucas Glover, Billy Womack and Frank Ford Sr.

For your convenience, all important information about The Country Club of Charleston is included below that will ensure your time with us is an enjoyable experience:

- The official practice round, for participants only, will be Wednesday, July 31st beginning at 9:00am.
- Practice round times will be made through a link the SCGA will send. All practice round times will be made through that Golf Genius link.
- The practice round fee is $35. The Club accepts credit cards or cash for practice round fees.
- The hours of operation for the practice facilities are 7:00am until 6:00pm.
- Players will receive lunch and there are other outlets to grab F&B for yourself or any spectator you have following along:
 - All F&B outlets accept credit card only
 - The Turn House, which is located next to the Golf Shop, will be open from 8:00am until 6:00pm
 - The Wappoo Café will be open from 11:00am until 8:00pm
 - The Country Club of Charleston does not serve breakfast
 - Personal coolers are prohibited
- Additional parking is available in the gravel lot adjacent to the parking lot and to the right of the 11th hole.
- Spectator carts will only be available to those that have a valid handicap sticker on their vehicle. They will be first come first served and the quantity available will be dependent upon the number of carts needed for players. Spectator carts can be rented for $35.

On behalf of all the members and staff, we're excited to welcome you back to The Country Club of Charleston. We wish you the best of luck in the 93rd South Carolina Amateur!
